Pizza.de, Lieferheld.de and foodora Germany migrated to Lieferando.de

Takeaway.com N.V. (AMS: TKWY), hereinafter the “company”, or together with its group companies “Takeaway.com”, the leading online food delivery marketplace in Continental Europe, completed the migration of the German Delivery Hero businesses to its brand Lieferando.de.

Takeaway.com completed the acquisition on 1 April 2019. The migration of Pizza.de, Lieferheld and foodora to Lieferando.de leads to an enhanced proposition for both consumers and partner restaurants in Germany. Following the migration, Lieferando.de added several thousand restaurants to its online food delivery platform in Germany, which further expands the variety of cuisines available to consumers, thereby diversifying choice and geographical spread. Although the websites have now successfully been migrated to Lieferando.de, integration of the organisation itself will still take several months.

As a result of the acquisition, Takeaway.com provides restaurant delivery services in 39 German cities, totalling 64 cities in ten countries for Takeaway.com as a whole. All delivery couriers are properly employed and, in most cities, provided with an e-bike to ensure a good user experience. The services are provided to consumers free of charge.

The German market represents a significant growth opportunity for Takeaway.com as it continues to tap into this large and underpenetrated addressable market. The increased scale of our operations in Germany will accelerate the progress towards profitability.
